SECTION-A

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below in your own words:

Celebrated as the party destination in India. Goa appears to have lost its 'happening' tag to the humble Bihar. Data collected by the Union Tourism Ministry appear to indicate that Bihar attracted as a larger number of foreign tourists in 2009 than Goa.

The Government's India Tourism Statistics report shows that while 4.2 lakh foreign tourists visited Bihar in 2009. Goa drew about 3.7 lakh losing its place in the top 10 destinations in India. Industry hands say that the economic downturn was largely responsible for the sharp decline in the number of tourists. Increasing number of adverse reports on the safety of women and declining law and order situation may also have been responsible for the drop in numbers. In fact states like Kerala and Rajasthan that have been hot international favourites have suffered the most in 2009 thanks to the global economic situation. While the number of foreign tourist arrivals dropped by 27% in Rajasthan from 14.7 lakh in 2009 to 10.7 lakh in 2008. Kerala saw 5.4 lakh tourists arriving in 2009. Andhra, that remains numero uno for domestic tourists, also witnessed stagnation with tourist arrivals increasing from 7.8 lakh to just 7.9 lakh between 2008 and 2009.

Questions:

- (i) Why is Bihar now. attractive place for the tourists?
- (ii) Name the states that have suffered the most in 2009.
- (iii) What is the position of Andhra for tourist arrivals?
- (iv) Which is losing state?

2. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follows :

With the state gearing up for eight phase Panchayat Poles in April 2011, the State Election Commission (SEC) has uploaded online formats for Panchayat voters through which they can make addition, modification and deletion in the existing electoral pool.

The format, which will be available on the website, www.secbihar.org, from January 5 to January 18, will help the voters to apply for inclusion or deletion of their names from the electoral roll free of cost.

Urban voters can apply online also. As for rural voters, for inclusion of their names in the electoral roll, they can either download the application format from the SEC website or apply to respective Block Development Officers (BDOs) or any other officer deputed for the job.

No applications in these respects will be entertained by the SEC office, said its sources. While format 'B' needs to be filled up for deletion of wrong names entered in the voters list, through format 'C' any other information can be included.

To include a name in the roll, voters or electorates need to fill up the format 'D'. The SEC has also made it clear that under no circumstances any application or voters will be entertained after January 18. Meanwhile, the voters should either apply online or to respective BDOs and applications filled up both online and to the BDO will not be entertained, said SEC sources.

Questions:

- (i) How many phases are there for Panchayat Polls?
- (ii) Write down the website for the format.
- (iii) Who is the incharge officer for rural areas?
- (iv) Why is January 18 important in the given passage?
